NOTICE OF HAKAFA POLICY ON USE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Congregation Hakafa's newsletters, calendars, and other publications, which are posted on the Hakafa website at www.hakafa.org and may be reproduced on other sites or in other media and distributed in other ways, may contain notices and reports of meetings, events and activities; names and contact information for meeting hosts, committee chairs, participants and others; personal expressions, joyous occasions and losses; and other personal information. From time to time, photographs of participants at activities also are included in Hakafa's publications. In addition, members' names and contact information, and the names of any family members mentioned on your membership form, may be included in the Hakafa membership directory published annually and distributed to all members. "Personal information" means any identifying information or photographs concerning you or your family members.

In consideration of your membership in Hakafa, you hereby consent, on behalf of yourself and your family members, for Hakafa to include your personal information in its publications as described above. You and anyone acting on your behalf or on behalf of your family members hereby release Hakafa and all those acting on its behalf, indemnify and hold them harmless against, and waive any claims, obligations or liabilities of any kind or nature at any time arising directly or indirectly out of or in connection with the use of your personal information as described above.

Please only complete and sign the opt-out statement below if you do NOT agree to the above consent and release.

Opt-Out Statement: To the extent possible, please do not include my personal information in Congregation Hakafa's future:

DUES COMMITMENT FORM 2018-2019

A MESSAGE FROM NANCY GOODMAN, PRESIDENT

I never met him, but I'm told that my grandfather-in-law was a generous man. He had a saying about giving – not the familiar “give until it hurts” (implying that you'd give more than you can afford), but “give until it feels good.” I think he meant that you should strive to give more than you thought you could, and the satisfaction of that accomplishment would be a gift to yourself as well.

That's what we all try to do at Hakafa – to reach out, extend ourselves, create a community beyond our own small circle, and do more than we thought we could – whether we are writing a new prayer book, challenging ourselves to study and learn, or mentoring refugees and rebuilding hurricane-damaged homes.

And when we pledge our financial support to keep Hakafa running, we know we are supporting something good, something important, something that makes us feel terrific to be part of.

Thank you for all you do to support Hakafa. You are helping build a vibrant, just, and caring community and a better world.
